

NEW JERSEY

Flute Society

Dear Flutist,

We are very pleased to announce the upcoming 2011/2012 season of the New Jersey Flute Society, and to extend you an invitation to become a member in this, our 3rd season!

The New Jersey Flute Society, established in 2009, is dedicated to promoting excellence in flute performance and providing an encouraging environment for students, amateurs, and professionals alike. Established as a non-profit organization, the NJ Flute Society has been chartered to cultivate the creative spirit and growth of flutists at all levels of proficiency by providing a program of workshops and guest performances, as well as collaborative member performances and networking opportunities.

So whether you are an amateur or a professional, or somewhere in between, the 2011/2012 NJ Flute Society season should prove to be an exciting and rewarding one. On September 9, 2011, we will be kicking off our first event of the season with a fund raiser to meet and greet you at the Atlanta Bread Company in Madison, NJ from 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. This is a great opportunity to get to know other flutists in the society and find out how you can volunteer. The society is expanding and is in need of volunteers to offer their services. Members of the board will be there to speak to you about our organizational needs.

Are you interested in performing for this event? Please contact Elise Carter at 973-851-5435 or email longnote@msn.com. You and your ensemble will have the opportunity to not only perform amongst members of the NJ Flute Society, but to the general public who come to this eatery in Madison. What better way to advertise your ensemble.

We will have our calendar for 2011/2012 at this meeting. Upcoming events include masterclasses by Robert Dick and Susan Milan, performances by John McMurtery, section flutist with the New York City Opera, and Flutacious and much more!

10% of the proceeds from food and beverage purchases at this event will be donated to the NJ Flute Society. Our gratitude and thanks to the Atlanta Bread Company!
